Dear Parents and Carers

I am sending out these dates, so you can put them in your calendars ready for September.

I know it is sometimes difficult for working parents to attend the meetings, so the information given out is all available on the website. I hope you find these meetings really useful as the teachers will be discussing their expectations for the year ahead and a brief idea of the work the children will be covering.

I will include these dates in the newsletter as well.

Have a lovely summer
Jill Hine
