

Teachers

collaborative

Relevant and meaningful

memorable

challenging

inclusive

linked

interactive

discovered

discussed

Science at St Margaret's - Our Vision and Principles

Science is good when teaching and learning is...

Governors said... When pupils say they love science and that they want to become scientists when they grow up.

VISION

Science is valued as a fundamental aspect of our lives and critical to the future. All children are equipped with the knowledge and skills to allow them to solve practical problems and make informed decisions through a hands on, inquiry based approach.

Pupils

Learning new and interesting facts

Exploring

experimenting

Trips and visits

outside

Testing

explaining

curious

Asking questions